Not-For-Profit Services

HLB Tautges Redpath provides audit, accounting, tax and advisory services to a diverse group of not-for-profit organizations. Our staff is trained to understand and recognize the unique needs and challenges of not-for-profit clients.

Our largest concentration is 501(c)(3) charitable organizations, so we are very familiar with the challenging accounting issues unique to 501(c)(3)'s and the ever-increasing scrutiny from the IRS, Minnesota Attorney General, other regulatory bodies and the general public.

Our not-for-profit services include:

- ◆ Audit, review or compilation
- ◆ Single audit services (OMB A-133)
- ◆ Financial statement preparation
- ◆ Management advisory services
- ◆ Tax preparation
- ◆ Internal control studies
- ◆ Functional expense allocations
- ◆ Lawful Gambling monthly financial reporting and annual audits
- ◆ Fraud investigations
- ◆ Special projects

Why HLB Tautges Redpath?

Not-for-profit expertise. Our CPAs are sensitive to the continuing needs of not-for-profit organizations and stay up-to-date and knowledgeable on all issues, laws and changes as they relate to the not-for-profit community. Through long-term client relationships, continuing education programs, in-house training and not-for-profit community involvement, our staff is well-prepared to provide clients with the services their organization requires in a timely and professional manner.

Governmental fund accounting expertise. With many not-for-profit organizations required to follow governmental fund accounting regulations, our clients benefit from our in-depth experience serving governmental entities. HLB Tautges Redpath has provided services to governmental entities since 1971. This experience translates well when assisting not-for-profit organizations with requirements such as compliance testing of governmental regulations and accounting for governmental grants.

Value. We work closely with clients to offer valuable solutions beyond our accounting and audit services. We take pride in proactively working with our clients and exceeding expectations.
